Dear General Walters:

STAT

Now in my senior year at [redacted] I have begun to look around for job opportunities following my graduation next May. As such, I was wondering if you could put me in touch with the appropriate person in the CIA with whom I could have an interview. I am planning to be in Washington on the 20th and 21st of November, and I would like very much to inquire into possible careers with the CIA.

STAT

School is fine, but I am out of football for the season as I broke my leg two weeks ago in practice. By the way, if you have not yet heard, Mother is planning to be in Washington for Xmas as both [redacted] will be looking at colleges. I am glad we will all be together again for the holidays.

I hope to be able to see you when I get to Washington. In the meantime,

Best Regards,

Attached is the report of interview concerning who was referred to us by your office.

At the time of the interview, [redacted] formed young [redacted] of General Walters' referral and interest. [redacted] was very appreciative. He plans to return to Washington in December to take our professional tests.

As you may remember from his October letter to the General (copy attached), [redacted] will be in the Washington area during the holidays with his mother, and I assume that there is some chance of their making contact with the General at that time.

Executive Assistant to the Director of Personnel
